

Topic, Main Idea, and Supporting Details

- The topic is what the whole text is about.
- The main ideas are important points about each topic.
- Supporting details are facts and examples that support a main idea.

The main idea of this page is that wildfires are frightening. A detail that proves that is wildfires destroy homes and kill people.

